Radical Kindness for Christmas

By Pastor Kevin Van Wyk

I just recut the bottom of our Christmas tree in hopes it would start drinking some water. Apparently, 7 hours on top of our van dried it out too much. In the process of cutting, hundreds of needles covered the floor. Stephanie was quickly sweeping them up and asked if I would help with the garbage as this would overflow. I very begrudgingly proceeded to help and then took the garbage to the dumpster.

Maybe you are bursting with energy to love, serve, and bless others. You probably jump at these opportunities to help. Or maybe you are a bit more weary, self-centered, and lazy.

What happens when you see the kitchen counter is cluttered with dishes, there are crumbs on the floor, the garbage needs to go out, or a thin layer of dust is taking over the TV stand? I tend to look on, thinking someone should take care of that... We all want someone else to do the work.

I did not do a nation-wide study, but I am pretty sure this is a major reason we don't serve. We fill our lives with work, sports, hobbies, food, fellowship, and then feel too exhausted to jump in and serve others.

Yet our Covenant Partner vows state...

"I will serve sacrificially as Jesus did..."

And how did he serve? Well, he succinctly stated, "the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:45)

Read that again! The Greek word here is diakoneō and it means to assist (Mat. 20:28), to take care of (Mat. 25:44), to serve food or drink (Mat. 4:11, Mark 1:13), to give financial aid (Acts 6:1), to carry out ministry of evangelism (Acts 20:24), or to be a deacon, serving the needs of believers (1 Tim. 3:10, Rom. 16:1, Eph. 6:21).

Notice the extent of the service Jesus offers... to give his life! Talk about raising the bar! If you read through the passages above, you'll see a much lower bar: simple acts of kindness. Yet, each of these actions are sacrificial acts, requiring one to die to self (Phil. 2:1-11).

Our Covenant Partner vows mention two ways we are to do this in the church. "...using my spiritual gifts and financial resources to further the mission of Jesus through the local church."

You can read more about identifying and using your spiritual gifts here www.altoreformedchurch.org/discover-your-strengths.html.

These are a couple of the most basic practices for believers: use your Godgiven abilities and resources for God. You are hopefully well aware of the churches need for your involvement in ministry and the need to fund programs and our ceiling project. I could pound on this for pages, but let me ask you one question:

Are you doing what God wants with your time and treasures?

If your answer is "no," make a change.

There is one more application I should mention. Given we have entered the Christmas season and the economy is effecting us all, let me challenge you to think more on serving than simply giving big gifts. I know, it won't fly with the grandkids, but it certainly is God's desire for us. When you see a nasty job no one wants to do, be the first to step up. Follow Jesus' example as he washed the disciples' feet; wash the sticky hands, wipe the runny nose, clean the toilets, scrub the carpet, and change the world with radical kindness.

Remember, whether its your time or treasures, "God loves a cheerful giver."

PRAYER: Lord, help us joyfully pour out our lives in service to you. Inspire us to give, serve, love, and bless others with a grateful heart. May we keep our eyes on your abounding kindness on the cross, so much so that we are moved to radical kindness toward others.

Advent

By Doug Shotsky

Isaiah 40:5 - And the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all people will see it together. For the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

I find that too often we can go through life without stopping to ask questions like, "Why do we do the things we do?" or "What does that mean?" The season of advent is one of those times for me. I've never taken time to ask, "What does advent mean?" Well, when I looked it up it makes a lot of sense:

Advent - the arrival of a notable person, thing, or event.

I had known through teachings I've sat through, and through taking chocolates out of an advent calendar for the first 24 days in December that we were mirroring the idea of the anticipation of Christ's birth. But, I didn't know that the word advent literally meant the arrival of what we've been waiting for. The arrival of Jesus was what all of creation longed for to redeem the broken relationship between God and humanity, and this fulfilled the hope that was predicted through the Scriptures and prophets for thousands of years.

What the world had always been waiting for had finally come! Join us, beginning in December as we delve into a series that will take us through the anticipation of the coming of Christ all the way through His arrival into our broken world to redeem us from the power of sin and death!
